In Memoriam

In loving memory of Susie Marshall, who passed away three years ago, February 8, 1974.

Because you were so dear to us,
Your memory will live on;
Just as the fragrance of a rose
Still lingers when it's gone.
Each day as we remember
Your gentle ways and sweet ways
We are sad but still grateful
That we had you for a while.
Your kindness and endearing ways
Still shed a glow around us.
And in our hearts that loved you,
You live and are with us still.
Your loving husband,
children, grandchildren,
great-grandchildren.
2-10-1p

In Memory of our father, Edna Mann, who passed away February 9, 1974.

Day by day, 3 years has passed,
And day by day we miss you more
Than words can ever say.
Little did we know when sun set that evening
What sorrow it would bring
Your loving heart just ceased to beat -
Before we knew it you had gone.
We visit your grave so often
And say a little prayer
That someday soon,
We'll meet you in a better home up there.

FACTS & FIGURES

A new, recyclable, lightweight soft drink container provides approximately 80 per cent energy saving when recycled as compared to the energy required to manufacture the original bottle. The original 32-ounce bottle uses 8800 BTUs (British Thermal Units). Recycling a 32-ounce bottle uses only 1800 BTUs.

A minimum of $250 a ton, is being offered by Monsanto Company for used containers of this kind, which are trade marked Cycle-Safe—about 1.8 cents per bottle!

SPORTS

EGGLESTON INJURED AT NELSON

By: Tamara Nash

For the remainder of the season, there will be only one blood-haired starter for the Appomattox Raiders. On Saturday afternoon when the Raiders played 1st place Nelson, co-captian Mitch Eggleston fell in the first few minutes of the game and was taken out with a sprained ankle. Mitch didn't get to score before his injury, but that was his first game of the season when he didn't score in double figures. Mitch has 186 total points in Seminole District play this season.

Although Mitch's spirit and scoring will definately be missed, Nelson had their hands full without him. The Raiders, in one of their better games of the season, added quite a few grey hairs to Nelson coaches, players and fans. In the first quarter, first-place Nelson had only a 4 point lead, 16 - 12. Scoring only 9 points in the 2nd quarter to a Nelson 17, the Raiders were 12 points behind at the half. In the third quarter, the Raiders scored 14 points, the Governors scored 12. Although Nelson had 3 of its players fouled out before the end of the game, the Governors still managed to score 21 points in the 4th quarter to insure a win. The final score was 66 - 47. Governors. From the foul line, the Raiders shot 67½% to a Governors 59%.

For Nelson, Smith was high-scorer with 28 points. Morse had 12 points for the only other Governor in double figures. For the Raiders, "Turk" Wingfield, a Senior, was high-scorer with 16 points. Tony Snell, a Senior, had 10 points for the only other Raider in double figures. Senior James Robinson, Senior Bill Shorter and Sophmore Joe Fraley each scored 6 points, and Senior Cecil Booker scored 3 to compile the Raiders 47 points.

Colonelettes Defeat Raiderettes

By: Donna Mitchell

After a week of being open, the Raiderettes hosted the Altavista Colonelettes in the ACHS gym on February 1 where a big crowd waited with bated breath to watch the Raiderettes go against the Colonelettes.

The Raiderettes came ready but the first quarter just seemed to slip away with the Colonelettes on top 5 - 4. In the second quarter, Altavista outscored Appomattox 8 to 5 with the half ending 13 - 9 in favor of Altavista. The third quarter ended with the Colonelettes leading 20 - 15. The fourth quarter was faster and had more action than any of the other quarters, but the Raiderettes couldn't seem to catch the Colonettes and the game ended 33 - 26 in favor of Altavista.

Jan Stanley was high scorer for the Raiderettes with 7 points and had 13 rebounds. Marie Fraley and Connie Murray scored 6 points each. Marlene Moore had 4 points, and Carolyn Jean Smith had 3 points and 10 rebounds. Pam Rader was high scorer for Altavista with 16 points. Altavista shot 29% from the floor and 61% from the foul line. Appomattox shot 26% from the floor and only 33% from the foul line.

Non-Varsity Games Cancelled

All 8th Grade and Junior Varisty Basketball games have been cancelled to be in compliance with Governor Mills E. Godwin, Jr.'s emergency order.

All Varsity contests will be played as scheduled. Girls will play at 6:30 p.m. followed by the boys, playing at 8 p.m.

Thermostats in the gym will be on night settings so wear warm clothing to the games when you come out to "root" for the Raiders and the Raiderettes.

Cavaliers Defeat Raiders

By: Tamara Nash

Height, once again, was a key factor in a Raider - Cavalier game held on Friday night, February 4, at the Raider gym. The Jefferson-Forest Cavaliers were victorious with a score of 65 - 54.

The Cavaliers came out in the first quarter shooting and at the beginning of the 2nd quarter, the score was 20 - 8. But, as Jefferson Forest found out, it's not easy to intimidate a Raider. The 2nd quarter was filled with steals and rebounds and when the Cavaliers headed towards the locker room with a shaky 29 - 19 lead. The Cavaliers scored 18 points in the third quarter and a whopping 22 points in the 4th quarter, the highest scoring quarter for either team for the night. From the foul-line, the Raiders shot 62%, the Cavaliers shot 58%.

For Jefferson - Forest, David Read was high-scorer with 25 points. Waldo Freeman scored 15 points and Marshall Nare scored 10, for the only other Cavalier in double figures.

For Appomattox, #32, Mitch Eggleston was high-scorer with 16 points. # 24, Tom Wingfield was only one point behind with 15 points. James Robinson, # 33, had 9 points, Cecil Booker, # 12, had 6 points, and # 15, Joe Fraley, and Bill Shorter, # 40, each had 4.

Dont miss the next exciting Raider game!!!

Raiderettes Raid Cavalettes

By: Donna Mitchell

On the night of February 4, the Appomattox Raiderettes met the Cavalettes of Jefferson Forest in the ACHS gym.

The first quarter was fast-paced and the Raiderettes, led by Jan Stanley, were on top at the end 12 to 11. In the second quarter, the Raiderettes were on the boards constantly taking a half-time lead of 26 - 16. The Cavalettes came roaring back in the third quarter, but the Raiderettes were still on top as the quarter ended 38 - 35. The Raiderettes never let down and won the game 53 - 46.

Carolyn Jean Smith led the Raiderettes with 18 points and 10 rebounds. Marie Fraley had 9 points, Marlene Moore had 8 points and 10 rebounds, Connie Murray and Jan Stanley threw in 7 points each, and Brenda Bowling and Roxie Martin had 2 points. The Raiderettes shot 40% from the floor to the Cavalettes 28%.

First Gold Performance Sire Named

FIRST GOLD PERFORMANCE SIRE NAMED

RWJ Victor J3 168 has made history in the Polled Hereford world as the first bull to earn the title of Gold Performance Sire on the American Polled Hereford Association's Superior Sire Program.

The progeny of the six-year-old bull, owned by Noba, Inc., Tiffon, Ohio; Codding Cattle Research, Foraker, Okla.; and the Louisiana State University Animal Science Dept., Baton Rouge, La., earned 18 points in qualifying bull tests in 1976-77 at Culpeper, Va. and Red House, Va. This put him 11 points over the 100 needed to attain Gold Performance ranking. Gold Performance is equivalent to Gold Trophy status, which is attained on progeny's performance in the show ring. A combination of either title with the Gold Seal title automatically advances a sire to the rank of Gold Standard. Thus, having earned the designation of Gold Seal Sire in November of 1975, RWJ Victor J3 168 is now a Gold Standard Sire, which will be designated from now on by three stars on the pedigrees of his offspring.

The test requirements for obtaining Gold Performance status, established in 1973, are rigid, and it was in 1973 that James Bennett of Knoll Crest Farm, Red House, Va., and Dwight Houff of Holly Hill Farm, Mt. Sidney, Va., began the tedious testing of 168's sons in BCIA test station at Red House and Culpeper.

In order to earn points for a sire, each offspring must have Guide Lines records and must have an average daily gain ratio on test of 90 or higher. Points earned for a sire are based on the yearling weight ratio of his male progeny.

Employees Donate 501 Pints of Blood At B & W Mt. Athos Facilities

Employees at the Mt. Athos facilities of Babcock & Wilcox donated 501 pints of blood during a two-day visit by the American Red Cross Blood-mobile on January 31 and February 1.

The total donations exceeded the goal by 76 pints. Mrs. Nellwyn C. Vaughan, director of the blood program for the Metropolitan Lynchburg area, said, 'Although our blood supplies are adequate at the moment, we are delighted at this response from B&W employees. Predictions are for continued bad weather through February and this could cause further cancellations of Blood-mobile visits. It is very good to have a reserve at this time of year when the demand is high.'

Of the employees who donated, 50 were first-time givers. Twenty employees received one gallon pins. One employee, Frank W. Adams, was presented with a six-gallon pin.

During the Bloodmobile's two-day visit at Mt. Athos last year, a total of 560 units were collected.

J. V. Raiders 34 Altavista - 19

On Tuesday, February 1, the J. V. Raiders used strong defense and the fast break to defeat Altavista 34 - 19.

The game was close until the Raiders broke away with a 12 - 5 advantage in the fourth quarter. Arthur Haskins led Appomattox in scoring with 12 points, while Andrew Kelso added 8, Tony Hancock 6, William Hamlett, Phil Paulette, Ronnie Abernathy and Stephen Lipford each added 2 points.

This turned out to be the last game of the season as the energy crisis forced cancellation of all sub-varsity basketball games.

The J. V.'s ended up 4 - 4 in district play and 4 - 6 overall.

Raiderettes Raid Altavista 16 - 15

On Tuesday, February 1, 1977, the JV Raiderettes played Altavista girls at Altavista and came out with a 16 - 15 basketball win in a defensive game.

Top scorers for the Appomattox JVs were Susan Handy with 6 points followed by Susan Godsey with 5 points. Annette Carter added 2 points, Sherri Repass added two points and one point came from Johnna Belter.

This was the last game of the season for the JV team due to the energy emergency. They ended the season with a 4 - 3 record.

Mrs. Lucy Harris, coach of the team, would like to thank all fans and parents of players for their support.
